Dear John:

Thank you for your May 14, 1991 letter regarding the two official actions received in this case. Either Beverly Monroe or I will instruct you shortly with respect to the non-unity action. With respect to the substantive action, I do not believe there have been any further developments in the United States since we last sent you copies of the file. The Patent and Trademark Office has yet to make up its mind on whether or not this case is in fact allowed.

Very truly yours,

JHI:bas
